Notices to Owner

Right to stop Work: If any payment under this agreement is not made when due, the contractor may suspend work on the job until such time all payments due have been made.

Notice of Lien: The contractor or subcontractor who performs on the contract and is not paid may have a claim against the owner which may be enforced against the property in accordance with the applicable Lien Laws.

Deposit of Payment: The contractor is required by Subdivision 4 of Section 71-a of the Lien Law to deposit all payments received prior to completion in an escrow account within 5 business days of receipt. In lieu of such a deposit, the contractor may post a bond or contract of indemnity or irrevocable letter of credit with the owner guaranteeing the return or proper application of such payments to the purposes of the contract. Monies in escrow become the property of the contractor when they are applied according to the Payment Schedule or when the contract has been substantially performed.

Cancellation: The owner has an unconditional right to cancel the contract, without penalty or obligation, until midnight of the third business Day after he/she signs the contract. Cancellation must be done by giving the contractor a written notice indicating the owners intention not to be bound. Notice of cancellation shall be deemed given when deposited in a mailbox, properly addressed and postage prepaid. Upon cancellation, any property traded in, any payments made under this contract, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within 10 business days following receipt by the contractor of a cancellation notice. Any security interest arising out of this transaction will be cancelled.
